

PAINTED wolf WINES

The Black Pack, Pinotage 2011 - W.O. Stellenbosch

Tasting notes

A powerful and robust wine packed with flavours of ripe berry fruit, peppery spice and creamy vanilla and carefully judged oak with evident ripe tannins and a long lingering finish.

The Vineyard

Pinotage grapes were sourced from the Devon Rocks vineyard which is owned by Painted Wolf Pack member, Juergen Heinrich. The vineyard is mainly ancient sandstone and is south-west facing. Yields are round 8 tons to the hectare.

Winemaking

The grapes were hand-picked. The wine fermented in tank on staves and moved to French and American oak barrels, approximately 70% new, for 9 months. Just over 7000 bottles produced.

Ageing potential

This wine will age well in bottle for up to 10 years.

Food Pairing

A warming wine which is wonderful with simply grilled steak or lamb chops, well flavoured country styles sausage or braised beef/lamb dishes which are made with wild mushroom such as Porcini/Cepes.
