Painted Wolf Wines - Alpha investor - Terms and Conditions.

The Alpha investment option is designed to accommodate Painted Wolf lovers who would like to participate as a group on this Wine and Wild dog journey.

- 1) This exciting project, to equip and staff a production cellar for Painted Wolf Wines and strengthen business capacity will help facilitate the doubling of sales by 2026 and allow the company to fulfil its goal to donate R1 million per year to conservation.
- 2) The investment opportunity closes on 30th November 2022.
- 3) Your Alpha investment of R50,000 will be repaid with wine in 3 equal installments of R25,000 each. The first selection will be packed within 10 working days after receipt of your investment in our company bank account and the signed contract. You will be notified when it is available for collection from the tasting room at The Simondium Guild or dispatched by courier (South Africa only). See point 7. The second wine installment falls due approximately 1st October 2023, and the third approximately 1st October 2024, when your loan will be deemed to have been fully repaid.
- 4) The wine will be valued at the full retail price as per the Painted Wolf Wines on-line shop at www.paintedwolfwines.com on the date at which each installment is dispatched
- 5) Winemaker Jeremy Borg will curate each wine selection with an emphasis on the limited release premium wines. You will receive an invitation to our annual zoom tasting and conservation talk. This will be hosted jointly by Jeremy and a well- known conservationist. Typically, but not necessarily, the selection for each of the 5 members of your pack will be made up from 3 bottles each of 8 wines. There will be a different selection of wines each time and each curated selection will be highlighted during the three online tastings. If the value of the selection for everyone within your Alpha group falls slightly short of R5,000 the outstanding balance will carry forward to the next curated selection.
- 6) If your pack don't want the curated selection you can opt to personalize your selection. We will e-mail you the cellar door order form from which you will select a total of R25,000 worth of wine. - ideally, we ship 5 selections of the same wines. This will be dispatched at the same time as the curated selection. In this case we must have your order in place and have received any additional payment required as below, at least 3 weeks before the shipping date. If the total value of the consolidate order for your pack falls short of R25,000 the balance will be carried forward to the next shipment. If your order exceeds R25,000 you will be invoiced for the difference (with your 15% discount factored into the excess). Once the outstanding payment is received the wine will be dispatched to you.
- 7) NB Shipping is included to all major centers in South Africa (as defined by the courier company). If we need to ship to an outlying area, we reserve the right to charge a surcharge equal to the difference between the cost of shipping to a major center and the cost to the outlying location. Wine will be dispatched upon receipt of the shipping surcharge.

Alpha Investor - additional benefits.

- 1) Online tutored tasting - We will send you an invitation to our annual zoom tasting and conservation talk hosted by Jeremy with a well - known conservationist. Date to be confirmed. Several wines from the curated selection will be tasted and discussed online.
- 2) Tasting Room visits - please visit the tasting room as often as you wish in the two-year period for a complimentary standard tasting for up to 4 people. You are welcome to visit as a pack or individually. Please give your allocated code.

- 3) Alpha tasting – We would like to invite your pack to one complimentary Alpha tasting during each of the two years. The maximum number of people we can accommodate for an Alpha tasting is 10. The Alpha tasting showcases wines from our top Lycaon Pictus range and is usually accompanied by a small selection of tapas and is hosted in our beautiful private tasting room. you will be welcomed by our tasting room crew. If either Emma or Jeremy are available, they will be excited to co-host. Booking for an Alpha tasting is essential - sales@paintedwolfwines.com
- 4) Discounted Painted Wolf wines - A discount of 15% will apply to all wines ordered from our online shop or the tasting room for the duration of your investment. Shipping costs are subject to standard rates, terms, and conditions to be found on the online shop at www.paintedwolfwines.com Once your investment is received in the Painted Wolf wines bank account you will be allocated a code which must be added each time you place an online order or buy wine directly from our tasting room. We cannot activate the discount retrospectively.
- 5) Participation in Painted Wolf events – as an investor you will have first preference to various Painted Wolf events. The locations, timings, costs and other details of such events are still to be determined. Space will always be limited so will be available on a first come first serve basis. In prior years, we co-hosted a series of wonderful Wine and Wild Dog Weekends at Chilo Gorge lodge on the edge of Gonarezhou National Park in Zimbabwe. This may be the location of a future safari. Please note that all activities will be subject to the T&Cs of the hosting operator, who will handle the bookings and payments etc.
- 6) Wine making with Painted Wolf wines - As Alpha investors, your pack will be invited to participate in the harvest and help make wine in our cellar. Given the nature of wine making your activities will be determined by the cellar or vineyard work which is required on the day your group is booked in to assist. Contact jeremy@paintedwolfwines.com

We look forward to sharing this Painted Wolf wine and conservation journey with you.
